Dedication

DESIRE

Give me not the crowded places,
Give me not the city's hum,
Give me not the worried faces
Which to worldly seekers come.
Give me woods and lakes and mountains,
Give me God's clean air to breathe,
Give me streams and forest mountains
Where nature speaks and men believe.
Give me scents which come from pine tops,
Give me gold from sunrise cloud,
Give me diamonds caught in dew-drops,
Freedom to pause and think aloud.
Give me trust in fellow-being,
Give me friends in time of need,
Give me eye's beauty seeing,
Then Shall I be blessed indeed.

—From Verses of 1937, Stan Walden

To E. N. HIMMEL

Professor of Botany

Who reflects the cheerful, amiable atmosphere that permeates N.C.C. . . . Who is a friend to all . . . Who has proven himself as integral a part of the college as Old Main . . . We, the Class of 1950 dedicate our Spectrum.

Foreword

THE Class of 1950 hos secured the services of "N. C. Cordinol" to cost his proud eye over the vast domoin of North Central College, ond present to you, the Student Body, an occurate account of his observation.

The Editors must admit they were rather nervous os they opprooched this refined and dignified bird who will not even stoop to soil his feet by walking on the ground. However, they dropped their democratic pride, accepted his superiority, and treated him with humble respect.

"N.C." was perched on the Senior Circle toking full advontage of the worm sun. His brilliant colors made us aware of our drob appeorance; his poise coused us to seem miserobly awkword. As he saw us opproaching he commenced with a strong, rich whistle, like the high notes of a fife, "Cheo-cheo-cheo-cheo," repeated over and over as if to make perfect the start of the song he is about to sing, suddenly he stopped, and we found that there wos to be no glorious performance after all, only o prelude to nothing.

As we talked to "Red" we realized that he wasn't actuolly such a bad old bird after oll. He told us how he had wotched N.C.C. for countless yeors. How he hod witnessed laughter as well as teors.

We uttered a sigh of grateful relief os he ogreed to make o tour of our campus. With a nod of his bright head he spreod his luxuriously red wings and took off to begin his research on N.C.C.

The Spectrum Staff has foithfully recorded every detail thot Mr. Cardinal has supplied. The Senior Class proudly presents, "A Bird's Eye View of North Central College."

The Editors

President

This past year of 1949-1950 has been Dr. C. Harve Geiger's fourth year as President of North Central College. Since he took office the same year the class of 1950 entered college, the half century class claimed him this year as a senior and one of them. Fortunately Pres. Geiger will not graduate and leave North Central but he has worn a black derby this past year which made him distinctly a senior.

In 1922 Dr. Geiger received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Chicago; in 1928 his Master of Arts degree from Harvard University, and in 1940 his Doctor of Philosophy degree from Columbia University. He also studied at Manchester College, North Manchester, Indiana.

His experience as a leader in the field of education was gained while he was Acting President and Dean of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

His extensive travels through the Mid-west delivering addresses for many civic and educational groups and churches have served to focus attention on North Central and to encourage additional students.

President Geiger's calm and dignified manner has assured many a troubled student and faculty member. He has proved a helpful and understanding president for North Central College.

Derby Days were Senior Days this past year. Our Senior Distinction consisted of black derbys for the men and white tams for the women worn by all seniors every Friday. A new system this year for settling class business was the Senior Questionnaire, which every Senior received at the beginning of school. It was a quick and easy system for determining class opinion without the necessity of numerous class meetings. Another innovation was the round bulletin board especially for senior announcements, called the "Senior Circle".

Long remembered by the Class of '50 will be their supersized Halloween party called "Spook Night at Ghoul's Castle."

Came the second semester and all School Talent Shows to give many of us a chance to display our abilities.

Remember the fun of putting on our class play, "Green Pastures," and who can forget Senior ditch day when we all piled in cars for a grand picnic at an unknown destination.

Fondly our thoughts return to the Jr.-Sr. Banquet held in the spacious Elmhurst Country Club.

We wound up the year with two Senior Chapels, one for out Last Will and Testament, and one for our Class Prophecy.

Then came "Cap and Gown Day." Gravely we marched down the aisle toward those well earned diplomas, a little sad, maybe, to think of what we'd leave behind, very happy with the the thought of what we were taking with us.

Junior Officers

"Ice Cream Social, everyone invited."
"Sock-Hop Square Dance, all invited!"
"All College Sports Party"

Such advertisements as these give an idea of the Junior Class theme throughout the year of getting the school active in the Junior-sponsored events.

Invite all the college, have everyone in on the fun, said Len Kaiser, class president.

The theme was further carried out as Christmas vacation neared and the Sophomores were invited to join the class of '51 in an evening of caroling.

In February the pride and joy of the Junior class, "Club 51", exhibiting the varied and versatile talents of most of the class.

Not to be forgotten by either the class of '51 or the class of '50 was the Junior-Senior banquet.

Sophomores

The Class of '52, tried and true veterans having survived the agonies of frosh life, recall a September party to renew old friendships and to meet new classmates. A dampness in our memory recalls a meeting of the Frosh half way through the "Roarin' DuPage," and there was the victory when the dust settled in the annual Frosh-Soph Scrap.

The Coaches recall the call number NCC-1952 brought forth good performers in any sport.

And you there, I can see you remember the variety of '52 talent in the All School Show, and the time we invited the Class of '52 from neighboring colleges for a party.

Yes Sir! Watch our "Smoke," for we warn you, the Class of '52 is on the go!

Freshmen

A rather confused lot of 227 students entered North Central as the Class of '53. The first week was full of new activities. The freshmen were feted and entertained in grand style the first weeks of school. Then the blow came—"Woe Week". Everyone knew it was all in fun. Thus emerged the fully integrated Class of '53.

The freshmen class was led by Jack Will, President; Wilbur Mason, Vice-President; Martha Beed, Secretary; Roger Ulrich, Treasurer; Dolores Norberg, Women's Representative and Glenn Hanne, Men's Representative. The class advisor is Professor Noss.

Or, you might be on the Activities Committee, which sponsors several all-College parties, hay-rides, and other "get-togethers." JACK KOTEN
Business Manager

Approximately seventy students under Associate Editors Lee Ester and Lou Bloede worked as an efficient team to publish thirty issues of the College Chronicle during the 1949-50 college year.

The staff began the year with the largest initial issue ever presented to NC'sstudent body. The second week saw a change from a four to a five column format. The October 5 Homecoming issue was another first. Over 4200 copies were printed and 3000 were sent out to alumni for a new high in circulation.

Publisher Jack Koten and Advertising Manager Bill Abe saw to it each week that enough ads were gathered to supplement the money allotted from student activity fees. Without the the advertising "leg-men", the Chronicle would not have appeared for lack of funds.

Each week News Editor Jim Retzlaff assigned stories to his staff of 30 reporters. Jim Keen feature editor, and his staff turned out entertaining feature material. Photographers Jim Blakeslee and Wayne Larson presented adequate graphic coverage of campus events.

Joe Miller, a veteran of four years on the Chronicle Staff, resigned his position as sports editor at mid-year upon graduation. Familiar with Merner Fieldhouse, well-known among the athletes and athletic department heads, Joe could always be counted on to consistently "grind out the copy." His weekly column, "Under the Showers" was widely read. At times controversial, it never failed to evoke comments from the students.

Prof. Richard Eastman, kept the staff on the alert with his weekly criticisms of the paper. He marked the stories, pointing out the good and bad features of each one.

The job of Chronicle make-up was handled by the associate editors and Jerry Lindgren and Gerry Fay. Usually beginning around 7 o'clock Monday evening, the job of placing the stories, proof-reading, and writing headlines frequently lasted until the small hours of the morning. The Naperville Clarion printers received the pasted "dummy" on Tuesday. The finished product was presented to the students on Wednesady.

Ted Reidt, circulation manager, supervised the job of folding and distributing 1100 copies of the Chronicle.

"The Spectrum Co." to many students is just o nome on one of the mony doors of Old Moin. To those that walk through that door and volunteer their services, however, it is a ploce of "blood, sweot, ond tears." There has to be some good intermingled with the good, ond os a result, a good many loughs ond fun was hod before the book went to press.

To Ann Oertli, Associate Editor, ond Chief Mounter, goes the credit for meeting picture deodlines, and mounting snops.

To Jonet Dow, Business Monager, we soy "Thonks for a job well done." Few realize the terrific job of tromping streets to obtain odvertisers for the od section. Those on her staff share her proises, nomely: Trudy Nochbaur, Vernon Schoefer, Marcio Bett, Dottie Emholtz, Lucy Kodoni, and mony others.

The Junior Assistants did their bit, and we look forword to their book next year. They were: Eileen Bertz, Dottie Emholtz, Barb Irwin, Janet Ledermon, ond John Zitny.

Biology

"To disseminate scientific truth, to promote biological investigation and to develop sound scholarship," are the aims of Beta Beta Beta, and the honorary biological organization on the campus has done just that this year. As sponsors of the Biology Club, they have presented a well rounded program for the year. Such presentations as Dr. Frank Dusek, a graduate of North Central and honor graduate from the University of Illinois Dental School, who spoke on "The Practical Aspects of Dentistry," and discussions on the implications of light and genetics in Russia kept the biology majors up to date on the latest developments in their field. They also sponsored a field trip into the Museum of Science and Industry and to the Brookfield Zoo.

The honorary society was started on the campus in 1938 with eleven members and with Dr. Eigenbrodt as advisor. Members are admitted on the basis of personality, character, and scholarship.

S. A. A. C. S.

When these five letters are interpreted, they stand for the "Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society," which is the organization of Chemistry majors here on North Central's campus. To be eligible for membership in the S.A.A.C.S., a student must have completed two semesters of college chemistry, in addition to being a chemistry major.

At their semi-monthly meetings, this club not only discusses Chemistry, but sponsors movies, and special speakers, thus heightening the interest in Chemistry. Another goal of these member sis to prepare for full membership in the American Chemical Society.

This chapter of the American Chemical Society, first recognized by the national association in 1942, was the first in Illinois to have attained this distinction.

The faculty advisors for this group are Professors Schap and Koten.

Commerce Club

The members of the Commerce Club, one of the largest on the campus, are striving to increase interest in commerce and to strengthen the Commerce Department at North Central. Parties and speakers from various companies in the Chicago area, sometimes seeking applicants for jobs, have kept the monthly meetings interesting and educational.

Requirements for membership are six hours of commerce, and a genuine interest in this field. Students who have been members of this organization for two years, have had twenty hours of commerce, and have a "B" average in this Department are eligible for membership in the Commerce Key Society, an honorary fraternity.

The officers of the organization are: John Jelinek, President; Marna Heltman, Vice-President; Dorothy Kirn, Secretary; Charles Lomas, Treasurer. The faculty advisor is Dr. Keller.

The officers for 1949-50 were Mary Jane Wagner, President; Betty Lou Menzel, Vice-President; Mary Helen Naffzinger, Secretary; Eleanor Zimmerman, Treasurer; Dorothy Emholtz, Publicity Chairman; Carol Passow, money making Chairman.

Two members of the club act as hostesses each month and serve refreshments at their meeting. Two of the most interesting meetings were the December meeting when they became acquainted with Gudrun Frese, an exchange student from Germany, and she told them about Christmas in Germany, and the meeting with the Wheaton Home Economics Club in which Rev. John Schaeffer showed movies of his trip to Europe.

The High School Economics Club was invited to a tea given as a special project by the club in the spring. At the All-College Thanksgiving Tea the foods class planned and served the refreshments.

Miss Quilling and Miss Jurrens provide faculty guidance for the club.

Pi Gamma Nu

Pi Gamma Mu is composed of those students who have shown an active interest in the Social Sciences.

This year another list of worthy students was added to the directory of Who's Who Among Students in Colleges and Universities in the United States. This is a directory of outstanding members of graduating classes in colleges and universities in the United States. Business and industries in the country make great use of this directory in seeking candidates for specific occupations.

There are numerous criteria on which the students are selected, among them being: personal integrity, scholastic standing, character and contributions to the college.

Dorothy Eigenbrodt served as President of the Honors Society for the year 1949-50, while Carl Zager acted as Secretary-Treasurer over the same period. High scholarship and character are requirements of this society. Students are elected in February and in June, permitting second semester juniors with a grade index of 2.65 and seniors with a grade index of 2.5 to be potential candidates. The number admitted is not necessarily limited as long as they pass the requirements set-up, and the faculty committee set up for the purpose of electing members to the Honor Society agrees to their admittance. This year there were over 200 seniors graduating from which to choose the newly appointed members of the Honor Society.

Homecoming Saturday

Homecoming 1949 was a combination of new ideas and old traditions successfully coupled to make alumni and students enjoy the coming "home" more than ever. The Homecoming co-chairmen who worked to achieve this were Len Kaiser and Jack Koten.

The Friday night program featured radio station WGN's Emcee, Tom Moore and his program "Ladies Fair". Tom Moore crowned the 1949 Homecoming Queen, Marianne Wilt, before the regal procession down to Fort Hill Campus. Queen Marianne's ladies-in-waiting were Glada Henneke, Phyl Ebinger, Judy Harrer, and Elaine Giere.

Came sunny Saturday and the dorms on campus proudly displayed elaborate decorations. Open house at the "White House" on Fort Hill given by Dr. and Mrs. Geiger began the day's activities.

Homecoming

At 12:45 the annual Homecoming Parade began at Old Main winding its way through town and ending at Kroehler football field. The motto for the day was "Trim Lake Forest" and "trim" them we did in the exciting football game that followed. At half-time the presentation of the winning float and decoration trophies was made by Orrin Tucker, an alumni of North Central now a popular band leader.

Saturday evening the Alumni Banquet was given in Kroehler dining hall followed by the Alumni Talent Show or "We Ain't Dead Yet."

Sunday all Naperville churches welcomed alumni and friends, and Sunday afternoon an innovation of a Homecoming Vesper was presented in Grace Church.

College Day 1949

College Day—that beautiful spring day in May when it's "open-house" at North Central—when we sparkle and shine with our best scholastic, athletic, and social efforts—when we extend a big welcome smile to all the visitors to our campus. It's the day we put our best foot forward in praise of the school we love so well. It's a day filled with old traditions from the flag raising ceremony in the morning to the crowning of King Rex at night.

College Day, 1949, began with the registration of visitors in Old Main followed by the flag raising ceremony. Next came the program in Pfeiffer Hall with the annual Home Economics Department style show. The Cardinal, our campus literary magazine, was presented by its editor, Chick Hewitt. Alice Holmes presented the 1949 Spectrum to Mrs. Ella S. Dute to whom the book was dedicated. And the innovation of the morning was the dedication of the Radio Station WNCC. The program

"Could be she's a jitter-bug?"

"The Winnah!"

"1949 Rex and Court

College Day 1949

was completed with the inauguration of Dwight Freshley as Student Body President by the past president, Ken Truckenbrod.

In the afternoon the annual baseball game with Wheaton was won by the Cardinals, 11 to 10.

The creative May Fete took place in the fieldhouse with the theme "American Scene", followed by the crowning of the May Queen. Mary Lee Siemsen donned crown and regal robe in place of former Queen Monie Kinney.

The evening program began with a Theatre Guild Production of "John Loves Mary" and concluded with the crowning of King Rex. Bill Rumsfeld, 1949 king, gave his crown and throne to Tiny Anderson, the new 1950 king.

With a few more tricks up their sleeves and some added experience the North Central football team did much to redeem themselves and their coach from last year's bad season. Having almost the identical team as last year, Coach Olson was able to drill the boys some more on his type of ball playing, thus producing a smoother playing ball club.

Losing to Knox in the first game of the season was a bad omen for the team, but they made a nice return by tilting Iowa Central 18 to 14. The N. C. eleven went right on from there to hit their peak performance by smashing Ill. College 40 to 6, with N.C.C.'s Lenny Burch, Norrie Cross, Ken Patterson, Sarge Wright doing much of the excellent ball handling and Lubach kicking the extra points. Our casualty of the game was Dick Raecker whose injured knee put him off the playing field for the rest of the season. After this game, the conversation lead to hints of a C.C.I. title and even the Corn Bowl was mentioned.

Lake Forest turned the tables on the Cards which lasted through the next two games and ended all talk about being conference champs like they were back in '47. Wheaton climaxed the Cardinal loosing streak by blanking the Olsen men 13 to 0. All of which meant the Crusaders were allowed to keep the "Brass Bell" for the second straight year.

Regaining their stride, the N.C.C. team staged a mighty comeback and whipped Elmhurst to a score of 55 to 7. With this victory to spurn them on, the Olson eleven tied Carthage 20 to 20 in a fight to the finish, with N.C.C. leading by a touchdown up to the last few seconds of the game when a penalty set up the tying touchdown for Carthage. This was the last game for the 13 seniors who made up the majority of the team and was probably another reason for the last big push of the season.

Playing their second season of Coach Olson's fast break ball the North Central basketball squad was rather slow in developing. Early defeats made them lose much of their confidence and proved to be one of their toughest opponents on the basketball floor throughout the season. It took time and many changes in the first team line-up before things got rolling the way they should.

Irv Spevak, Leo Hoffman, Carl Zager, "Red" Weldy, Bob Lalinsky, and Bob Bartlett along with Capt. John Berger were considered the first rate players on the team and did most of the scoring for the season. Dave Evans, also one of the first string cagers, switched schools at semesters leaving a big hole in the cager lineup. Dick Claus, one of the most promising players for next year, did his best playing in the latter part of the season and will be counted on next year, for some good ball handling.

Bob Weldy again copped top honors for being high point man with a total of 285 points, 118 of which were field goals. John Berger was second in line with 173 points and winner of North Central's Free Throw Trophy by dropping in 63 free throws and Leo Hoffman taking third place honors with a total score of 145.

Opening the season at Coe College the Cardinal cagers took their opponents for a spin and left them on the losing end of a 67-61 score. The following night the Cards ran into some resistance and lost to Grinnell by the small margin of 67 to 62. Zager, Weldy, and Spevak were high point men for the N.C.C. five in these two games.

Chicago Teachers kept the Cards on the losing end for one more game but Elmhurst felt some of the revenge when the Cards downed them with a small lead of 62 to 61. On home ground the Cards trounced the Chicago Teacher's quintet on a return engagement but were on the receiving end of the next two games, the second of which was with Augustana which gave the Olsonmen their first conference loss.

The Carthage game was an upset, with N.C.C. racking up a score of 79 to the opponents 53, giving the Cards another taste of victory. Lake Forest downed the Cards but Ill. College had their hands full and lost to the Olsonmen 74 to 72 in an overtime game. The Ill. Wesleyan game took the Cards away from home and left them with a second loss on their conference list. Lake Forest and Wheaton both dealt painful blows to the cagers which was partly relieved when Elmhurst succumbed to the Cardinal threat to the tune of 97 to 70 which was the Olsonmen's high point game of the season and also a new N.C.C. scoring record.

Millikin went on to the C.C.I. Championship by edging out the cagers in the final minutes of a game that had an unsettled lead until a few well placed baskets brought the score to a 72-63 count shortly before the time ran out.

Seniors Zager, Bartlett, Spevak, Braun, and Berger left their college basketball careers with a blaze of glory in the last and most exciting game of the year. The The Wheaton Crusaders proved to be a very close match by ringing up a double overtime game. Cardinal player Leo Hoffman saved the game by dropping in the basket that tied the score, with Bob Bartlett tying the score for the second overtime. Leo Hoffman came through in the squeeze and pushed in the winning shot during the last few seconds of the second overtime, for a 79-78 victory.

Weldy was again voted the most valuable player award by playing 613 minutes throughout the season and topping his last years time of 533.5 minutes.

Invitational Track

Record breaking was the order of the day in the twelfth annual midwest indoor track meet in Merner field house on March 5th when Wheaton relinquished its title, to Loyola University. Loyola totaled 44 1/4 points to Wheaton's 35 2/3.

Here are two of North Central's glorious moments: Mike Pope's third in the broad jump and "Tiny" Anderson's fourth in shot put, giving North Central a total of five points.

Six meet records fell by the board. The record of 47' 11" made by Peterson of Wheaton in 1949 was broken by the same trackman this year with a throw of 48' 5". Bob Kelly of Loyola cut the old two-mile record, 9:56.4 by 33 seconds. The Jr. College Sprint relay, 8/11 mile, won by Morton Jr. College team, changing the record of 2:41.0 to 2:33.9. Wheaton broke a second record when the 12 lap relay team lowered its own time of 1949, 4:03.8 to 4:02.0. Beloit's two mile relay team trimmed Wheaton's time 8:28.0 to 8:21.5. The last old relay record to bow out was the 4:28.8 record held by Wilson Jr. College in the Jr. College medley relay. La Grange Jr. College set a new record time of 4:27.0.

Bob Johnson of Yankton, South Dakota, won the achievement trophy and the most points per individual trophy went to Chuck Whittingham of Loyola. Johnson won the mile and placed in the two mile run. Whittingham won the broad jump, 60 yard dash and ran on Loyola's winning 8 lap relay team, giving him 12 points.

L. C. Belding, Athletic director of North Central College, was manager of the successful Midwest Invitations of the Track Meet.

MEN'S SWIMMING TEAM

The N.C.C. swimming team, coached by the the former Olympic star Hal Henning, took top honors in the conference meet held at the home pool this year.

Paul Retzlaff paced the team with a total of 87 points. Captain Bob Koenitzer was undefeated in the 150 yard backstroke, and took second place honors. John Koenitzer was third in the high-scoring column.

Bob Koenitzer, Paul Erickson, and John Koenitzer set a new pool record for the 300 yard Medley Relay with a time of 3:09.8, Erickson, a newcomer, also broke an old record in the 200 yard Breaststroke by lowering the time over 5 seconds to a 2:35.0 mark.

Three new conference records were also set by N.C.C.: the 300 yard Medley Relay and the 150 yard Backstroke, by the same men who hold the present pool records. The 400 yard Freestyle Relay conference record was broken by Jim Neuman, Dick Fetzer, Paul Retzlaff, and Art Rawers. Allen Beyler took first and second diving honors.

The Student Body is proud of a team that has put N.C.C. high in Aquatic rating.

Senior, Dick Tholin, tops of the players, won the honor of competing in the Central Collegiate Tenis meet at Western Michigan College, and holds the Number 1 singles crown.

This year Olson's nine moved down the scale to come out seventh in the conference standings. "Lefty" Andrews took first position on the mound and Chuck Desson the receiving end. The Elmhurst Blue Jays took the first game two to one. The Cards then sacrificed games to the U. of Chicago, Illinois Wesleyan and to Macomb Teachers' before recovering to take Carthage, two to one.

The Squad was shut out by Western Illinois U. but returned with a 13 to 5 victory over Lake Forest. Wheaton, Lake Forest and Millikin, caught the Red birds off guard, resulting in three defeats. The Olson nine successfully wound up with an eleven to ten score over Wheaton.

Andrews led in batting with a .286 average, Captain Braun and Tarte following with a .280 and Ottesen with an average of .275.

Outdoor Track 1949

The 1949 N.C.C. outdoor track squad opened its season with second place in a triangular meet with DePaul and Elmhurst at Elmhurst. Burch, Anderson, and Sinderson were high point men.

As the season progressed, Anderson along with Burch, led the Cards in scoring, and succeeded in catching second place honors in another triangular meet with Illinois, Wesleyan and Millikin. 217 pound Laurence Anderson cracked Jay Berwanger's 15 year old N.C. shot put record of 47 feet 5 inches, with a heave of 47 feet 7 inches. "Tiny" also successfully defended his Little Nine shot put crown tying the old record of 46 feet 10 inches.

Gathering 17 3/4 points in the third Little Nine Track and Field Meet which was held at Decatur, the Redbirds managed to take sixth place, with the crown going to Wheaton. Anderson was the lone Cardinal victor in the meet, but "Tunk" Dunning tied for first in the pole vault with a pull of 11 feet 9 inches. Other point getters of the local squad were: Ronnie Baumgartner, a fifth in the shot put; Bob Boggess, a tie for fourth in the high jump; Dave Meloney, third in the 880; and Lenny Burch, fourth in the broad jump. The Card mile relay team placed fifth. Star hurdlers of the team were Harry Stelling and Captain Bill Rumsfeld.

Varsity Club

Winners of letters in football, basketball, track, tennis, or swimming who are able to endure a rather gruelling initiation are eligible for membership in Varsity Club. Besides upholding a sportsmanlike spirit in all athletic contests, members of Varsity Club sponsored a ping pong tournament, selected the Midwest Track and Swimming Queen, put on a minstrel show, and "threw" their yearly formal dance. Varsity Club is unique in that it is the only club in the school wealthy enough to have a clubroom with a television set and a ping pong table.

Golf 1949

Doing an "about face" the Card golfers went from top to bottom in Little Nine Conference standings. The preceding year the Card Champions paced the conference meet with a score of 665. But this year coming up with a 684 they found themselves out of the picture. The Golfers racked up a season of three wins and seven losses, taking ninth in the conference. The Card's team includes Dale Schultz, Dick Uphoff, George Stephens, Bob Meisner, Frank, Sherry, Price, and Geils.

The Women's Athletic Association is governed by a Board of Control comprised of the administrative officers and the heads of the various sports. Officers for this year were Shirley Rosendahl, Pres., Shirley Knopf, Vice-Pres., Dottie Emholtz, Sec., and Norma Knapp, Treas. The juniors won the intramural soccer tournament. The seniors were the basketball champions for the fourth consecutive year. The tennis tournament was won by Betty Staley.

Women's Swimming

The Merner Varsity Mermaids' primary difficulty the past season was the lack of competition. Collegiate varsity teams for competitive meets were just hard to find . . . although a combo of YWCA'ers from Green Bay, Wisconsin challenged the feminine tankers at their first meet and caught our gals a bit high and dry with a staggering score of 47 points to N.C.'s 12.

Cheerleaders

"Yell Like ? ? ?" 1950 marks the end of a lively iron-lunged cheering combination: Miriam Felberg, Nova Cobb, Dante Germanotta, Jack Dennis, Allen Beyler, and Paul Stiffler, Allen Beyler was captain of the active team this year. It will be hard to forget the antics of Paul and Al with their hypnotizing act, that monster rubber mask, their Russian dance, and that "Can Can" chorus line assisted by Jack Dennis.

For the first time a Pep Club was started this year made up of freshmen. There were twenty members: ten girls and ten boys. Don "Hoppy" Hopkins led the Pep Club cheers. Faculty adviser for the Pep Club and cheering squad was Miss Mary Louis Hargis.

A new constitution was drawn up for both the squad and club. It stipulates that each spring a new squad of six, besides the next year's captain, will be elected.

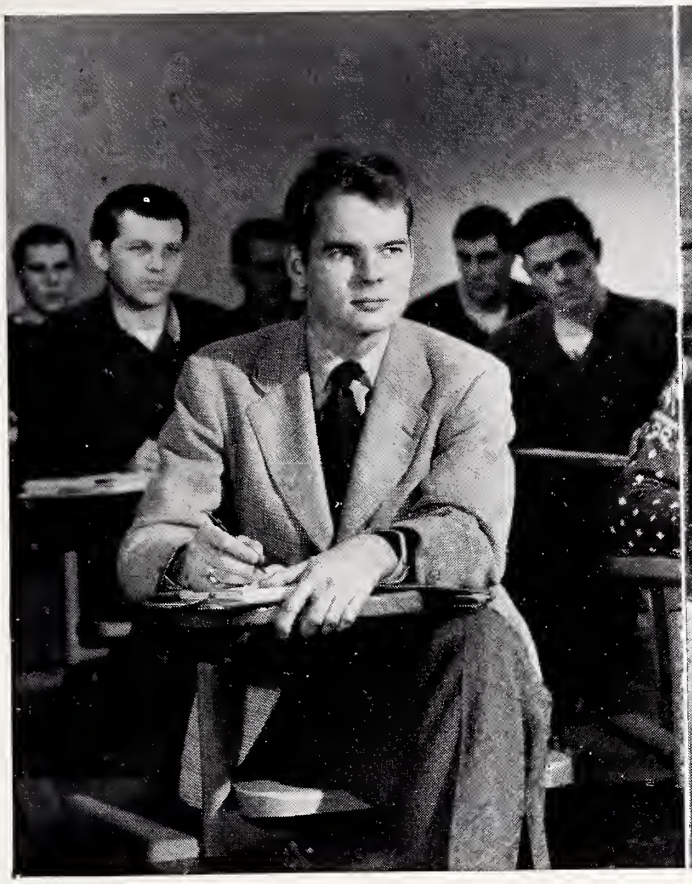
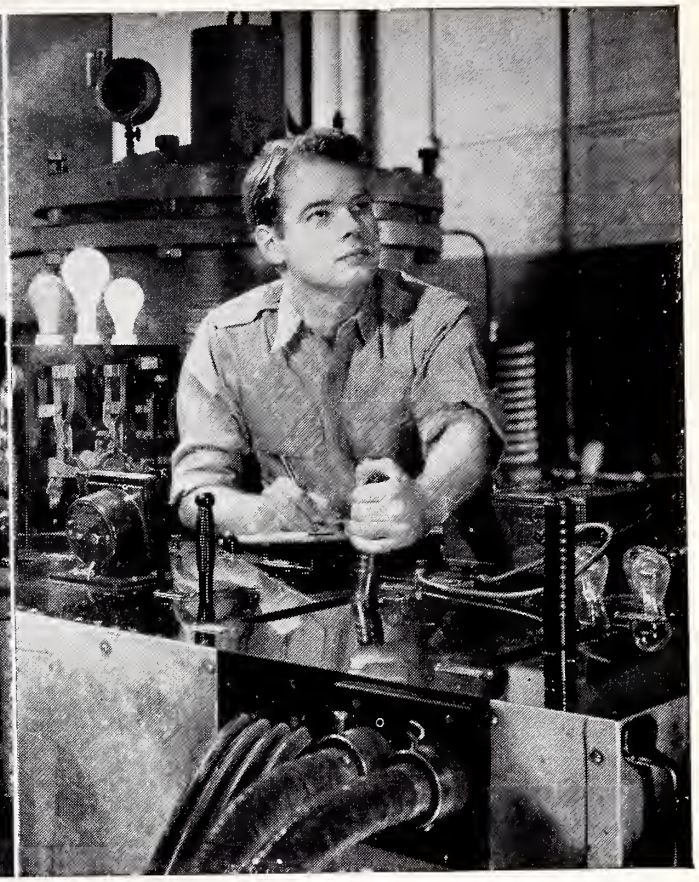
Education and Industry . . .





Work Together in the Chicago Area

In the Chicago area, you can go to school and get practical industrial experience at the same time. Education and industry work together to coordinate practice and theory. The opportunities that result—both for industrial firms and their employes—are great.

Cooperative training programs have been jointly developed by Chicago area educational institutions and industrial firms. Students selected for these programs alternate three-month periods of industrial work with similar periods of study in cooperating universities. The combination of on-the-job experience and formal schooling turns out men who keenly appreciate both the practical necessities of industry and the theoretical principles that underlie them.

Two major factors promote the success of cooperative training programs in the Chicago area. First, the region is the industrial heartland of the nation; it contains an abundance of diversified industries. Second, the area is richly endowed with a variety of high-calibre educational facilities.

The results have been valuable to the participating industries, to the students enrolled in the training programs, and to the cooperating educational institutions.

Industry gains highly trained personnel, and has the opportunity to select for permanent, responsible jobs the best prospects in the group being trained. Since the cooperative programs attract alert, well-balanced individuals, the quality of the entire group is high.

The students profit from their knowledge of actual working conditions. They are better able to absorb and weigh the classroom instruction they receive.

The educational institutions can plan courses that will fit the needs of the students. Close contact with industry permits adjustment of courses to meet new industrial conditions.

Cooperative training programs are only one of many ways in which education and industry work together in Chicago and Northern Illinois. The combination of a great educational center with a great industrial area offers unusual benefits to every industrialist.

An Acknowledgment

Perhaps many of the Spectrum readers do not realize what a great amount of work goes in to the making of such a publication. However, with the helping hand of some who stood by, we were able to prepare and bring to you, Class of '50, the book of your choice.

Our professional aid was offered in the persons of Mr. Kase of S. K. Smith Company for a beautifully original cover . . . never shall we forget our photographers, Jim Stephenson and Raymond Gilmour, exclusive from Harrington Studios in Joliet . . . not to forget Mr. Motherway and Mr. Tansey from Pontiac Engraving helping to solve those problems that have to do with mounting and engraving . . . and finally we handed in the final copy to Mr. Rogers of Rogers Printing Company, who really deserves a tribute for getting our book back to you.

Several students deserve mention because of their earnest and willing aid given towards the making of this book. Sports Editors, Dale Schendel and Faye Phillip, Literary Editor, Nancy Thompson and their staffs deserve a round of applause for meeting that final deadline. And may we say "thanks", Dottie Emholtz and Eileen Bertz for your unselfish efforts in typing the final copy, rewriting and making the dummy complete. Another "thanks" to Trudy Nachbaur, Marianne Wilt, and Lucy Kodani who gave their time to helping the Business Staff. Thanks to you Keith Griffeth and Bob Price for giving photographic service. In the mounting limelight, we say "thanks" "Ricardo" Hawthorne for your timeless efforts. To all these and many more, we, Chuck, Annie, and Jan, would like to say "Thank you."
